

Condor's Hope

Among the blue oaks and chaparral, Condor's Hope Ranch is nestled at the foot of the Sierra Madre Mountains in Santa Barbara County. In this region, condors are being released to soar once again after returning from the brink of extinction. Our name captures the hope embodied by their resurgence and the care of the environment needed for all of us to flourish.

The five acres of Condor's Hope dry-farmed and head-trained grapes are sustainably grown using agroecological principles and practices. Winemaker JP Pawloski works with these grapes to transform their deep, zesty flavor into high quality wines that bring the essence of old California to your lips.

We invite you to join Condor's Hope Network where you can order unique wines directly from us and learn about our sustainable practices and our care for the environment while you savor the excellent results.

From our family to you—enjoy!

- 2010 30 cases remaining..... $19..... $16..... $15
Matured nicely in the bottle. Classic fruit forward flavors of rich raspberry and ripe blackberries. Normal rainfall and ideal summer temperatures during ripening produced this very well balanced wine.
- 2011 161 cases remaining $19..... $16..... $15
Tastes of black cherries come to mind. Soil moisture from the year before produced a well-balanced abundant fruit with a finish that hints of spicy chocolate.
- 2012 81 cases remaining $19..... $16..... $15
Harvested in their prime in a drought year. Black cherries give a robust, fruit forward essence. The finish hints of chocolate with a touch of vanilla.
- 2013 65 cases produced. release date: Fall 2015 $19..... $16..... $15
The second year of drought lowered yields and increased the intensity of this berry-laced essence of Zin. Order ahead to savor this classic dry-farmed Zin as it develops time in the bottle.
- 2012-EZ 37 cases remaining $13..... $11..... $10
Drought stress and an early harvest produced a fresh 'easy-to-drink' Zin with light raspberry overtones followed by a lingering pepperness.
- Shiraz Santa Barbara County Full-bodied smoky overtones of plum Kept in American Oak barrels for 15-20 months
- 2012 33 cases remaining..... $22..... $19..... $18
This wine captures the rich, deep, smoky fruit of an excellent dry-farmed shiraz with a lingering finish of ripe plums.
- 2013 Only 11 cases produced. release date: Summer 2015 $27..... $23..... $22
An extreme drought year produced very limited, high quality grapes. Whole-berry fermentation produced a Shiraz that fills your mouth with flavors of blackberry jam and cacao nibs. This will develop beautifully over time.
- Rosé Santa Barbara County Blush blend of Zinfandel, Mourvèdre, and Mission grapes crafted into a dry Rosé in the European tradition.
- 2012 Welcome Rosé
58 cases remaining..... $13..... $11..... $10
This Rosé begins with a floral bouquet and a hint of hibiscus. Dry on the finish, enjoy with friendly lunches and leisurely picnics.
- 2013 Rosé
27 cases remaining..... $13..... $11..... $10
Strawberries and pomegranates are followed by a hint of spice on a smooth finish. Delightful with cheeses and appetizers.
- 2014 Rosé
Only 25 cases produced. release date: Summer 2015..... $15..... $13..... $12
A third year of drought yields of this warm afternoon favorite. Harvested at a low brix produced a classic Rosé, with nice acidity on the finish and the taste of summer fruits.
- Pedro Ximénez Santa Barbara County A truly unique white wine. Grown extensively in southern Spain, this variety thrives on heat and dryness. We are one of the few producers of this wine outside of Spain.
- 2014 31 cases produced. release date: May 2015 $22..... $19..... $18
This white wine is unique—rich, viscous, with hints of pear and fresh citrus coupled with an earthiness that reflects our dry farm system. Past vintages have sold out quickly, so place your order early.
- Our Mentor's Old Vine Zin Paso Robles Kept in American Oak barrels for over 20 months
Benito Dusi grew up on the ranch that he farms today just south of Paso Robles, California. He carefully tends Zinfandel vines grown in the traditional dry-farmed, head pruned style that he learned from his father. We met Ben when we began planting our vineyard in 1997. He became our mentor, teaching us these traditional techniques to use at Condor's Hope. We are very pleased to be one of the few small producers of wine from Benito Dusi's old vine Zinfandel.
- 2011 64 cases remaining $24..... $20..... $19
The wisdom of the vines comes through in a full body and lingering richness. Expect raspberry jam, a complex structure, pepper on the finish.
- 2012 45 cases produced. release date: April 2015..... $24..... $20..... $19
A drought year brought the fruit of black cherries forward in this excellent example of an Old Vine Zin. Full bodied and complex, this Zin will fill your mouth with fruit and spice, with a hint of chocolate on the finish.
